

It is our great pleasure to bring to your attention the outstanding success of one of our students , Nikolaos Skouloudis , first in the Intermediate Mathematics UK competition Mathematical trust managed by the University of Leeds , and in the second place in the prestigious MacLaurin Olympics which is a follow on from the first competition for the highest achieving candidates there.