

Political Science

Complementary course S6/S7

What is it?

Political Science focuses on contemporary challenges to help prepare you to be critical and active citizens in a democratic Europe.

We focus on relevant case studies and current affairs.

What do we do?

What are present and future challenges of the 21st century?

European Union – What next for Europe?

Democracy, Power and Ideologies – How not to be a dictator!

Disinformation and Populism - Artificial Intelligence and technological disruptions

What do we do?

Citizenship and society – What is my role in all of it?

States and sovereignty – Will the nation state survive?

International Relations, War and the United Nations – Might makes right?

Political values and identity in a globalized world

For which students is the course interesting?

If you like ...

History,

Geography,

Economics,

Sociology,

or Human Sciences

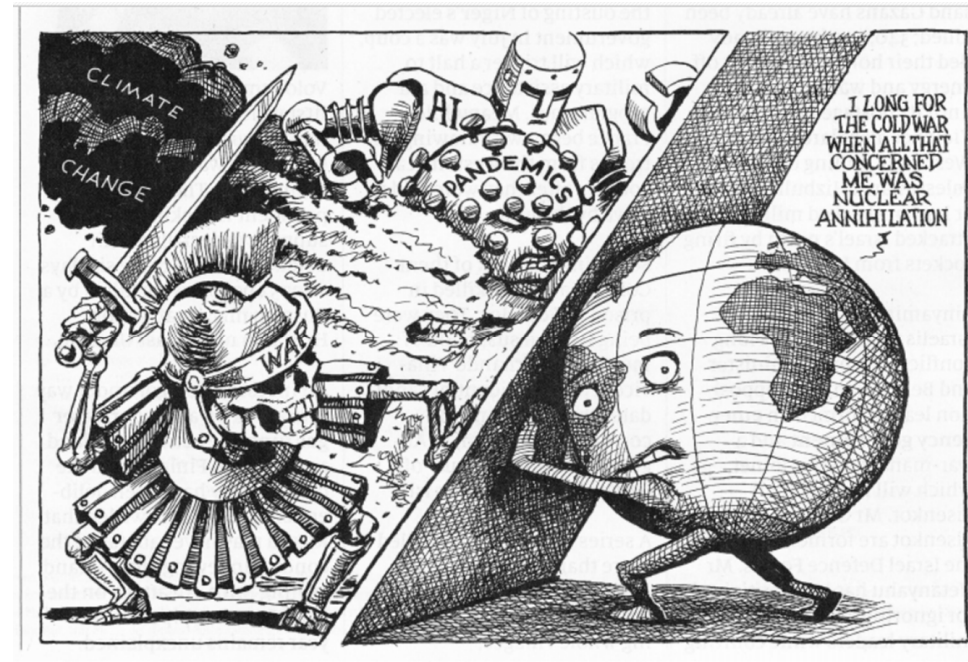

... it is a great choice for you

How do we learn?

We use lots of different sources to explore political problems:

political cartoons,
newspaper articles,
videos,
speeches,
statistics
and maps

Assessment

Proactive oral participation in class discussions

Coursework

One presentation per semester

Any questions?

Feel free to contact Mr Pletsch

Hope to see you soon!

